INFORMATION ON OPPORTUNITY TO STUDY MASTERS OF SCIENCE IN TROPICAL ANIMAL HEALTH (MSTAH)

The Higher Education Council (HEC) wishes to convey to the general public that the Kingdom of Belgium has provided information on opportunities to study Masters of Science in Tropical Animal Health (Belgium).

The joint MSTAH will be offered as a 2 year blended programme (combined web-based and face to face) and is designed to allow participants to combine work and study.

The Embassy of Kingdom Belgium in Kigali further notes that, some financial support is available on these opportunities.

Interested candidates should complete the online application form and relevant information available at:<https://edu.itg.be/course>.

Please note :

1. Deadline for online registration is 15 August 2018.
2. All financial costs not mentioned in this offer will be covered by the candidates themselves.
