

Higher Education Council (HEC)
P.O. BOX 6311, Kigali

PUBLIC NOTICE

HEC would like to inform the public that:

After its thorough analysis and verifications regarding the accreditation status of the “Atlantic International University” HEC found out that this institution is not accredited in the United States of America by the USA Agency in charge of accreditation of institutions of Higher Learning. Further to this, the claimed accrediting Agency for Atlantic International University”, which is ASIC (Accreditation Service for International Colleges) is not a Government Agency in charge of accreditation of institutions of Higher Learning in the United Kingdom (UK) or any other country.

Although some graduates managed to get equivalences of their degrees issued by the “Atlantic International University”, based on the above information, all Equivalences issued to graduates from “Atlantic International University” were withdrawn.

HEC would like to advise all Rwandans wishing to further their studies to always be more cautious while registering with any Higher Learning Institutions, especially those claiming to offer their teaching online.
